Brochart KB v. Vilsons Shipping PVT, Ltd.
SDNY Docket #: 07 Civ. 4729 (GBD)

Honorable Sir:

We are counsel for Plaintiff in the referenced matter. We refer to our letter to Your Honor, which Your Honor endorsed, setting tomorrow as a control date for this matter while the parties complete settlement of this matter.

Since our last letter, we have proposed to Defendant to send us a letter confirming that Plaintiff may request this Court to dismiss this matter and direct release of the attached funds to Plaintiff in settlement of Plaintiff's claims. This would obviate a default judgment application. We are awaiting that letter from Defendant, which we hope to receive in the near future and then file the aforementioned request for a dismissal order.

If the foregoing is acceptable to Your Honor, it is respectfully requested that the Court reschedule the conference with Thursday, July 17, 2008 as a control date for purposes of monitoring the parties' settlement. It is our intention that, before such control date, we will have a settlement agreement in place that will result in a proposed order to Your Honor to dismiss this proceeding.
